MOVE YOUR ORGANIZATION FORWARD

Emergenetics International has over two decades of experiencing transforming the way organizations understand and develop human capital. Our solutions provide the power to hire smarter, develop talent and create a cohesive, effective, and successful workplace.

It's how AIMCO saved hundreds of thousands of dollars in hiring costs. It's why MillerCoors put over 1,500 employees through our workshops and made Emergenetics a cornerstone of their learning and development strategy. The list of clients goes on and on...and the results are just as powerful.

>> More Effective Hiring and Selection

"The ESP test has helped me uncover things that I never would have uncovered through an interview process. We won't hire anyone that hasn't gone through the ESP process."

Sanford Chandler, President - Vertex Systems

>> Building Innovation and Enhancing Problem-Solving

"Emergenetics helps us recognize and appreciate individual thinking strengths; we are learning the power of focusing those strengths against problems and projects to produce innovative, high-quality results."

Tom Reed - Director, Learning and Development, MillerCoors
